

Born in Texas, Will Schoggins traveled abroad in a military family. Upon finishing high school in the Philippines, he returned to Texas and graduated from A&M Corpus Christi with a B.F.A. majoring in Studio Art. His travels and personal experiences are his inspiration to do fun and unique work. He loves all kinds of mediums from sand castles to wood carving. His latest projects have been sand carving glass, ceramics and stone, as well as designing CD covers for local Texas musicians. He truly is a multimedia artist.

His wife Lori, manages sales and marketing and assists with production. Together, Will and Lori are proud to offer quality products and services to their clients.
